

Announcing CIRCLE-G!

This well-known, successful program on the South Shore has supported children whose parent or sibling has died for over two decades. It's all about developing and mastering coping skills when facing a stressful life event.

WHO: Children, five to thirteen years, come with their parent, enjoy a pizza supper, and maybe, for the first time, join other children who have lost a loved one.

WHEN: (meets every other week, October-May)

WHERE: House of Prayer, Hingham (Rte 228)

HOW: It's easy to refer a child and his/her parent to CIRCLE-G. Please share this flier with your families. They only need to send an email to:

info@joannasplace.org or for more details or questions, feel free to call Maria Trozzi at 617.921.4008.

"My children loved CIRCLE-G! They found friends and comfort in sharing feelings and learned how to manage hard feelings. They wanted to go every week!" -A parent from last session

Space is limited so please, forward this to your families today! You will have helped a child develop and master coping skills that will serve him/her for a lifetime! Thank you!

Maria Trozzi, Executive Director, Joanna's Place
Co-founder and former Director, Good Grief Program,
Boston Medical Center
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, emeritus,
B.U. School of Medicine
Author, Talking with Children About Loss